

U3AM at Home

Quiz Corner - Liz Haylock

Answers to last week's questions

- 1 Edward Jenner is noted for development of the smallpox vaccine.
- 2 Princess Anne is also known as the 'Princess Royal'.
- 3 The formula for calculating the circumference of a circle is $\pi \times D$ diameter, or $2\pi \times r$ radius.
- 4 New Amsterdam was the earlier name given to New York. In 1664, the British seized the town from the Dutch and gave it the name: New York
- 5 In finance, the acronym ECB refers to the European Central Bank
- 6 Katharine Hepburn was the leading lady in the movie "The African Queen".
- 7 In handcrafts : blanket; stocking; satin; chain and herringbone are sewing or embroidery stitches.
- 8 In golf a birdie is where a golfer achieves a score of 1-under par on an individual golf hole. Par is the expected number of strokes an expert golfer would use to complete a hole.
- 9 In mythology, the names of the twins in Gemini are: CASTOR and POLLUX
- 10 The world's smallest country is the Vatican City at 0.44 km²;
followed by : Monaco - 2 km²; Nauru - 21 km² ; Tuvalu - 26 km² ; San Marino - 61 km² Liechtenstein - 160 km² and the Marshall Islands - 181 km² .